young man. he is liked by every one that knows him. he has got a good wife. a good housekeeper & kind to all of them. Tell your mother I met Mrs Asher in the Cemetry last Saturday. she has Buried 5. of her family. Two Sons & Three Grandchildren. but she is completly broken hearted about her youngest Son. he was more comfort to her than any of them. he never gave her an unkind word in his life. he had Grip & turned to Consumption. she has had her trials & looks miserable. she wanted to know all about your mother. now I hope this may find all enjoying the best of health with so all. Ever your loving Aunt Margaret

Dear Lily,

You will think it very unkind of me in not ans. your kind & loving letter. before this time. I have been away for the most part of the Sum<sup>er</sup> up in Muskoka. it was my intention to go to Erie after I came home. but Sister Jennies souble prevented me doing so.
I dont know if Mary wrote & told you of the illness of her father. we are hourly expecting

To Chicago To them as I think it my duty in this hour of trial & as I am the only one that is free to go. The rest of them have their homes to look after. & we feel that some one of us should be with her at this time.

All the families here are well as far as I know. I did hear that James Thornton had another Hemorage. I think it a great pity that he got married but the poor fellow done it for the best. but from what I hear I am afraid he will go like the rest of the family I am very sorry he is such a nice

To receive a disfach of his Death. he has been a great sufferer with Cancer in the Throat. it was on the outside & rested on his shoulder. Three weeks ago the Dr said the only thing to relieve him was an operation. for he was suffering intensely. he might die under the operation but the Drs thought he was worse than he was. he came through it. & then they discovered one on the Brain. he has had several Hemorages since. we had a card yesterday & he was very low. I am going
